

VISITING MINORITY CLERKSHIPS

| Institution | Eligibility | Other program specifics | Contact Information | Application/Website |
|---|---|--|---|---|
| Boston Medical Center | Fourth year medical students are eligible for month-long electives between August and December | Program offers assistance with travel, provides housing, and supplies modest living stipend. | Minority Recruitment Program minority.recruitment@bmc.org | http://www.bmc.org/minority/MRWebApplication2007.pdf |
| Harvard Medical School | Fourth-year and qualified third-year medical students are eligible for four-week long electives. Third-year medical students must have completed core clerkships (medicine, surgery, pediatrics, and obstetrics). | The Exchange Clerkship program offers housing to accepted applicants and provides a stipend up to $350 for travel to and from Boston. | Visiting Clerkship Program Coordinator vcp_hpsp@hms.harvard.edu | http://www.hms.harvard.edu/registrar/forms/newapplication.pdf |
| Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine | Fourth year medical students are eligible for clerkships in subspecialties and subinternships in the Department of Medicine | Program offers financial assistance (registration fee waiver, housing, limited travel assistance) | Diversity Council Visiting Clerkship Program Erica Scott escott15@jhmi.edu | http://diversitycouncil.med.som.jhmi.edu/clerkship/index.html |
| Mayo Clinic School of Medicine | Fourth year medical students who have completed 52 weeks of actual patient care clinical experiences, which includes 32 weeks of basic clerkships and 20 weeks of electives | Diversity Scholarship Program offers $1000 scholarships toward travel and housing expenses. | Jacksonville location: outman.elda@mayo.edu Rochester location: clerkship@mayo.edu Scottsdale location: dalessandro.silvana@mayo.edu | http://www.mayo.edu/msgme/diversity-vmcsc.html |

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|--|
| Mount Sinai School of Medicine | Third year students are eligible for electives between March and June of their third year; fourth year students are eligible between July and February of their fourth year | Housing and travel costs are subsidized for one month | Carl Johnson, MD carl.johnson@mssm.edu Monique Sylvester monique.sylvester@mssm.edu | http://www.mssm.edu/cmca/initiatives/senior_elective.shtml |
| Ohio State University College of Medicine | Third year or fourth year medical students. | The Visiting Student Program offers a $2000 diversity scholarship for high-achieving applicants to defray the cost of housing, travel, etc. Students selected for the Visiting Student Program must arrange their own housing. | Muntaqima Furqan Muntaqima.furqan@osumc.edu | http://medicine.osu.edu/odca/vsp/index.cfm |
| University Hospitals – Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine | The David Satcher Clerkship hosts 10-15 minority students annually. | Deadline for the Satcher clerkship application is June 20 of each year. | Frank Miller, Jr. frank.miller@uhospitals.org | Application to the Satcher Clerkship can be found at: http://www.uhhospitals.org/Portals/6/docs/Our%20Services/Diversity/satcher_app_0606.pdf Application to the general elective program must be completed as well, and be found at: http://www.uhhospitals.org/Portals/6/docs/Our%20Services/Diversity/visiting_student_app_0606.pdf |
| University of California – San Francisco | Fourth year students who have completed basic clerkships are eligible to do rotations in the Department of Medicine | Visiting elective scholarship program (VESP) offers up to ten $1500 scholarships that cover housing and travel; award is granted after rotation is completed | Rene Salazar, MD salazarr@medicine.ucsf.edu | Application to VESP may be obtained by e-mail request to Dr. Salazar Application to general elective program must be completed as well, and can be found at: http://www.medschool.ucsf.edu/visitingstudents/pdf/application.pdf |

| | | | | |
|--|---|--|---|--|
| University of Massachusetts Medical School | The UMass Resident Recruitment Program is open to fourth-year medical students. The program offers positions between July 1 and December 31. | The UMass Resident Recruitment Program offers a stipend to qualified candidates to help subsidize housing and travel during the elective. | Janice Robert janice.robert@umassmed.edu | http://www.umassmed.edu/service.aspx?id=36540 |
| University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine | The Edward S. Cooper Visiting Clerkship offers four-week electives between July and December in subspecialties of internal medicine. | Applicants accepted into the Cooper Visiting Clerkship will receive free housing and provided a stipend for living expenses and travel-related costs. | Dr. Horace DeLisser delisser@mail.med.upenn.edu | http://www.ups.upenn.edu/medicine/education/resappinfo/houseDiversity/PDFs/VisitingClerkshipApplication.pdf |
| Wake Forest University School of Medicine | The Scholarship Clerkship Program for Visiting Medical Students is open to full-time fourth year medical students who are in good academic standing. | Scholarship Clerkship Program participants will receive a stipend for housing and travel. Each rotation is four weeks, and the application must be returned at least three months before the desired time to participate in the rotation. | Nicole Henry nhenry@wfubmc.edu | http://www1.wfubmc.edu/NR/rdonlyres/313B063F-54F9-4AAE-ACF9-6275FE1D32C5/0/ScholarForm.pdf |
| Washington University School of Medicine | Fourth year students are eligible to engage in a four-week elective commencing with rotations that begin in October | Application fee is waived, program offers up to $2000 in funding towards housing, travel, and other living expenses | Lisa Stevenson stevensonl@msnotes.wustl.edu | http://aladdin.wustl.edu/medstudents/eletvcat.nsf |